Thank you for taking time to answer a few questions. It is not our desire to put anyone in the middle of a custody dispute, however, we need this information to effectively represent our client. We will accommodate your schedule as much as possible to prevent any disruptions.

1. Please tell me how you know _____ and the children.

2. Please tell me how often you see _____ with the children.

3. Tell me have you ever been into _____ home?How many times?

4. Please describe the conditions of the home, especially the children's room(s).

10. Do you feel like it is in the best interest of the children for _____ to have custody? Why?

(Please use extra pages if needed)
